Please read the following important notes carefully before completion of this Form:

This Form is for tax refund claims only. It is applicable to foreign non-individual investors and exempt non-corporate investors as follows:

- (i) in relation to foreign non-individuals, distributions made by Mapletree Industrial Trust ("MIT") during the period from 21 October 2010 to 31 March 2020 (both dates inclusive) in respect of MIT units registered in their own names and where tax at the prevailing corporate tax rate (currently 17%), instead of the reduced rate of 10%, had been deducted from such distributions; and
- (ii) in relation to exempt non-corporates, distribution made by MIT in respect of MIT units registered in their own names and where tax at the prevailing corporate tax rate (currently 17%) had been deducted from such distribution.

You are a foreign non-individual investor if you are not a resident of Singapore¹ for income tax purposes and:

- (a) you do not have a permanent establishment² in Singapore; or
- (b) you carry on any operation in Singapore through a permanent establishment² in Singapore, where the funds used by you to acquire the units in MIT are not obtained from that operation.

You are an exempt non-corporate investor if you are:

- (a) a charity registered under the Charities Act (Cap. 37) or established by any written law; or
- (b) a town council; or
- (c) a statutory board; or

If you are a foreign non-individual investor or an exempt non-corporate investor and tax at the prevailing corporate tax rate (currently 17%) had been deducted from the distributions made to you in respect of units held by you, you can claim a refund of the tax over-deducted from the Inland Revenue Authority of Singapore (IRAS) through the Trustee and the Manager of MIT.

To claim the tax refund from IRAS and to enable the Trustee and the Manager of MIT to ascertain whether you are entitled to the refund, you will need to make a declaration in this Form.

The Trustee and the Manager of MIT will rely on the declaration made in this Form to determine if you are entitled to a refund. Please therefore ensure that this Form is completed in full and legibly and is returned to Boardroom Corporate & Advisory Services Pte. Ltd. Failure to comply with any of these requirements will render this Form invalid and the Trustee and the Manager will not be able to determine if you are entitled to a tax refund.

If you are eligible for the refund, the amount of tax over-deducted will be refunded to you only after the IRAS has refunded the amount to the Trustee.

Please make sure that the information given and the declaration made in this Form is true and correct. The making of a false or incorrect declaration constitutes an offence under the Income Tax Act and the Declarant shall be liable to the appropriate penalties imposed under the said Act.

Please use a separate tax declaration form (Form R1) for each income distribution period.

Foreign non-individuals and exempt non-corporates who hold their units through Depository Agents should contact their Depository Agent as any claim for refund of the tax over-deducted from distributions made in respect of units that were held by a Depository Agent will be processed through the Depository Agent.

This Form is to be returned to Boardroom Corporate & Advisory Services Pte. Ltd., 50 Raffles Place, #32-01 Singapore Land Tower, Singapore 048623. The Trustee and the Manager of MIT will collate all declarations received on a half-yearly basis (by 30 June and 31 December) and submit a claim for tax refund to the IRAS on a half-yearly basis.
